EXPECT ALL THE BARS TO CLOSE

Adams County Hotel and Saloon Keepers Expected to Follow Custom of Past Several Years. Generally Observed in the Past.

It is expected that hotel and saloon keepers in the county will observe the custom of the past four years and will keep their bars closed all day Christmas. A few years ago Judge Swope made a request that this be done and there was not one infraction. The next year it was equally well observed and last year, when Christmas came on Sunday, those having license generally kept their bars closed on Monday and the custom has come to be so well kept that it is not considered necessary each year for the Court to make a request.

While Adams County has this commendable custom a number of surrounding towns are adopting the principle. Waynesboro and Chambersburg are among the nearby towns where hotel keepers have agreed to close their bars on Christmas and on all sides it has met with favorable comment.

As at last year's observance, the bars of the county will all close at midnight Saturday and remain shut tight until Tuesday morning.

KRALTOWN

FREE REMEDY HELPS CHILDREN

Many a mother has learned of a way of avoiding sickness in her family, especially among the children, by the use of a free sample bottle of the famous laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This offer of the doctor's to send a free sample bottle has been responded to by thousands of women in all parts of America.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a truly wonderful laxative and especially adapted to the needs of babies and children because it is pleasant to taste and no child will refuse it. Then, it is mild and never gripes. It is all that a child's remedy should be, though it is a good laxative for the whole family because it is effective at all ages. It is not dynamic like salts, pills and powerful cathartics, which should not be given to children under any circumstances.

For Sale by the People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

Nine times out of ten when a child complains and you don't know exactly what is the matter with it, it needs a laxative—its bowels are constipated. Syrup Pepsin will correct the trouble, tone up the child and soon it will be well again—wonderful results have been secured with Syrup Pepsin over night.

You can buy it of any druggist at fifty cents or a dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size, but you are invited to make a test of it first at the doctor's expense. Send him your address today and he will send you a free sample bottle direct to your home. Then when satisfied buy it of your favorite druggist.

For the free sample address him, Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

HUSBAND TREED, HIS WIFE KILLS BEAR

Woman Halts Bruin Almost at Muzzle of Rifle.

Bangor, Me., Dec. 21.—F. C. Harvey, of Tenafly, N. J., was treed by a bear for two hours while on Boardman Mountain on his way from Yoke Pond to the railroad station. He was rescued by his wife.

Mrs. Harvey came over the trail carrying her husband's rifle. The animal left its post at the foot of the spruce tree, in which Harvey had taken refuge, and charged furiously. She stopped him with the second shot when the animal was less than ten feet away.

Harvey had come upon the bear unexpectedly, and when it showed fight took to a tree, dropping his mittens. During the two hours he was kept there his hands became badly frost-bitten, and he strapped himself to a limb with his belt.

Mrs. Harvey has been in the woods here for several seasons and is an expert shot.

TAFT LAYS CORNERSTONE

Officials at Settlement House to Train Blind Children.

New York, Dec. 21.—President Taft laid the cornerstone of the first settlement house ever designed for the protection and training of the blind, a six-story home to be erected at 111 East Fifty-ninth street.

For several years Mr. Taft had been actively interested in the philanthropy, and has been an active supporter of the New York Association for the Blind.

Looking down upon the smiling blind children, Mr. Taft said he took the deepest interest in their welfare, and that he was glad that he could well express that he had the opportunity to say so. "But I came here to lay a cornerstone and not make an address," he continued. "I certainly hope, as we all do, that on this cornerstone will be raised a structure mighty useful to the blind and typical of the duty that we, who have sight, owe to the sightless, whose journey through life is a difficult one."

Mr. Taft then spread the mortar with a trowel that had been presented him by Miss Keator, of the Woman's Club of the New York Association for the Blind, upon the base of the stone, after which the masons swung the block in place. Miss Holt told the president that in the cornerstone had been placed a photograph of himself, new coins, the papers of incorporation, a volume of the association's first report and specimens of work done by the blind.

Juror, Fearing Error, Commits Suicide.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 21.—Worried over the responsibility incident to a verdict in a personal injury suit, in which he was a juror, Charles F. Newman, who lives at Chester, eight miles from here, shot and killed himself. Newman was allowed to go home, as were the other jurors, while the judge prepared instructions in the case. The juror talked with his wife about the danger of making mistakes, and after going to bed shot himself.

TO HEAR DIVORCE AGAIN

Court Refuses to Confirm Decree for Upton Sinclair Against Wife.

New York, Dec. 21.—Upton Sinclair's divorce suit will have to be heard over again. Supreme Court Justice Davis refused to confirm the report of William S. Kelley, the referee, who first heard the evidence and reported in favor of the author, who is suing his wife, Meta Fuller Sinclair.

Justice Davis' reason was that the referee allowed Sinclair to testify regarding alleged relations between his wife and Harry Kemp, the "tramp poet," whereas the statute provides that, in a divorce trial, the husband or wife is not competent to testify, except as to the marriage and to deny the statutory charges.

The case will be referred to another referee.

In his complaint, the author alleged that his wife and Kemp were together at Sea Girl and Long Branch, N. J., in August last. The evidence at the referee's hearing upheld the accusation.

Mrs. Sinclair at the time the divorce suit was brought stated that she regarded her husband as an "essential monogamist." She longed to be free, she declared, so that she could seek her real mate. Mrs. Sinclair did not put in a defense.

CONGRESS RATIFIES TREATY ABROGATION

House Concurs in Senate Resolution Ending Russian Pact.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The last step in authorizing the termination of the treaty of 1832 between the United States and Russia was taken when the house concurred in the Lodge resolution ratifying the action of the president in notifying the Russian government that the convention would come to an end Jan. 1, 1913.

The action was by viva voce vote. The only negative vote was cast by Representative Macon, of Arkansas.

While congress is severing certain relations with Russia the state department and the White House are working vigorously to push negotiations looking to the drawing of a new understanding. That this is a delicate task is acknowledged.

The best of feeling thus far marks the negotiations, but the difficulties, while not insurmountable, are great. This is especially so because of this government's ban on the entrance into this country of the orientals races.

Both the senate committee on foreign relations and the foreign affairs committee of the house indicated their entire willingness to assist in advancing the overtures in every way in their power. The stake is a commercial interchange between the countries running into the millions of dollars annually, with the balance all in favor of the United States.

Schoolgirl Kills Herself.

New York, Dec. 21.—Fannie Platt Van Cott, a sixteen-year-old girl, borrowed a glass from her teacher and slipped quietly into the lavatory at a girls' high school in Brooklyn. Ten minutes later a teacher found her dead on the floor, the empty glass beside her. A one-ounce bottle, which had contained some liquid, lay in a basin nearby, but it was washed away before the teacher could seize it. Unknown to the 1500 girl pupils in the school, the body was removed to the teachers' room, where physicians worked in vain to restore life.

Walking From Chicago to Providence

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Leon Spencer and Frank Rothchild, local pedes trians, started on a walk to Providence, R. I. According to the terms of a wager of $250 the distance must be covered in thirty-five days. The men figure on making an average of thirty-five miles a day. The route will lie through Cleveland, Buffalo, Albany, New York city and Bridgeport.

Ex-President Made Prisoner.

San Domingo, Dec. 21.—Former President Morales, with some followers, landed on the east coast of San Domingo. They were at once taken prisoners, and are expected to be brought to this city. They will be brought before the court on a charge of conspiracy. The country is absolutely quiet.

ACCUSED PASTOR MUTILATES BODY

Rev. C. V. T. Richeson Severely Cuts Himself.

NEARLY BLEED TO DEATH

Doctors Were Called and Saved Minister Accused of Murdering Girl by Finishing Operation.

Boston, Dec. 21.—Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, whose trial on the charge of murdering Miss Avis Linnell, his former sweetheart, is scheduled for Jan. 15, mutilated himself in a shocking manner in his cell at the Charles street jail.

With a piece of tin, apparently the top of a marmalade jar, which he had sharpened to a rough but keen edge on the cement floor, Richeson cut himself in an indescribable manner, and when four physicians reached his side they found it necessary to perform an operation in order to save his life.

District Attorney Pelletier and the physicians are of the opinion that the accused clergyman did not slash himself for the purpose, or with the intention of committing suicide, but the hemorrhage was so great that Richeson would have died from loss of blood within a short time had he not called for help in his agony. It is the general opinion that Richeson would have slashed himself in some other portion of his anatomy than the groin had his purpose been to end his life. Many people believe that the clergyman had reached such a state of frenzy that he literally carried into effect the Biblical saying: "If an eye offend thee pluck it out," etc.

District Attorney Pelletier issued the following statement in regard to the case: "About 4 o'clock in the morning, while in his cell, Richeson inflicted a severe lacerated wound upon himself with what is apparently a piece of tin can. Medical and surgical assistance was at once summoned and operation was immediately performed.

"I am advised by the doctors that his condition is not dangerous, and it has not been necessary to remove him from the jail. The trial will be held on the date originally assigned, Jan. 15."

Undoubtedly the lawyers who have charge of Richeson's defense will ask for a commission to inquire into his sanity.

It was 4 o'clock in the morning when the keepers at the jail heard screams in the corridor where Richeson's cell is located. The guards ran to Richeson's cell, and, unlocking the door, the officers found the clergyman unconscious on his cot. As one person described it, the cell literally was swimming in blood. Telephone calls were sent for physicians, and Richeson was carried to the jail infirmary where the operation was performed.

Every one connected with the case was stunned when the report of Richeson's act reached them.

PRESIDENT NAMES AIDS

Appointments at White House Please Capital Society.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Washington society watches eagerly each season for the announcement of the aids at the White House, and probably no list has ever been more generally satisfying than the one just made out.

Colonel Spencer Cosby and Major Archibald Butt still head the list, the latter acting as special aid to the president and both representing the army.

Lieutenant John W. Timmons, whose daughter is the daughter of former Vice President Fairbanks, heads the navy list.

RAISE FOR N. J. TROLLEYMEN

Public Service Corporation Increases Wages of Conductors and Motormen.

Camden, N. J., Dec. 21.—The New Jersey Public Service corporation announced that on Jan. 1 it would increase the wages of its motormen and conductors one cent an hour.

Men in the service of the company less than one year will be given 23 cents an hour, between one and two years 24 cents, and more than two years 25 cents.

About 3500 men throughout New Jersey are affected.

ATWOOD'S NARROW ESCAPE

Aviator Tumbles 1500 Feet But Gains Control of Plane.

Marblehead, Mass., Dec. 21.—Harry N. Atwood had a narrow escape from being dashed to the ground from a height of 2000 feet while trying out a new hydro-aeroplane.

Atwood sailed out over the harbor and climbed to 2000 feet. Suddenly he shot down at terrific speed for 1500 feet. At 500 feet height Atwood got his machine under control again.

Vandals Cut Senate Painting.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Vandals got into the capitol and mutilated "The Battle of Lake Erie," the largest canvas of the collection of paintings which adorn the walls of the senate corridors and stairways. A strip two feet long and three inches wide was cut from the lower left-hand corner of the painting at a place where the artist had shown a great deal of detail.

MAY HAVE TARIFF WAR WITH RUSSIA

Result of Abrogation of Treaty of 1832.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Serious tariff difficulties will automatically arise between Russia and the United States with the termination of the treaty of 1832, one year from next month, unless by that time a new treaty has been negotiated or Russia goes out of her way to grant rate concession to these countries.

These difficulties will grow out of the double tariff system of the Russian government. One set of schedules is to be applied to goods coming from countries with which Russia has treaties containing "most favored nation" clauses. The other rates are to be applied to imports from countries with which Russia has not in force any guarantee of "most favored nation" treatment.

With the termination of the treaty of 1832 the United States will no longer have any guarantee of the most favored nation tariff treatment, and under the ordinary interpretation of the Russian tariff law the general tariff rates, considerably higher than those of the conventional tariff, will be applied to American goods.

If this is done, and the maximum and minimum provision of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law is still in force, President Taft will be obliged to revoke the proclamation granting minimum rates to Russian goods. This situation would be nothing less than a tariff war, the effect of which, of course, can hardly be foreseen at this time.

Signs Abrogation Resolution.

Washington, Dec. 22.—President Taft signed the Lodge joint resolution giving force and effect to his abrogation of the Russian treaty of 1832.

Secretary of State Knox was the only witness of the signature. The treaty will automatically continue in effect until Jan. 1, 1913. In the meantime efforts will be made to negotiate a new treaty eliminating the causes of friction which led to the termination of the old one.

MAY UNSEAT LORIMER

Many Believe Senate Will Vote Against Illinois Man.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Now the Lorimer investigating committee has adjourned for the holidays and Senator Lorimer is the only remaining witness to be called, senators are beginning to take "stock" of the situation in an effort to determine how the inquiry will be adopted by a substantial majority declaring he is not entitled to his seat.

Bill to Check Liquor Shipments.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, introduced a bill which would prohibit interstate railroads or other carriers from taking liquor into any "dry" territory.

SAVE HEIR FROM STRANGE CULT

Lad Is Rescued From "Sun Temple" in Chicago.

KEPT ON GRAPES AND BEERDIET

Records of Juvenile Court Reveal Details of Thrilling Escape and Restoration After Nationwide Chase.

Chicago, Dec. 22.—George Lindsay, the twelve-year-old heir to a fortune in Philadelphia of more than $1,000,000, has been rescued here from the "inner circle" of a sun worshippers' cult known as the Mazdaznans.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsay was an ardent believer in the Mazdaznan cult, and had been advanced by the heads of the sect to the post of "Vahdah."

Before the boy was wrested from the hands of the followers of the cult, he had been traced by detectives employed by the uncle from New York to Los Angeles, and eastward again to Chicago.

The uncle has asked that the court take charge of the boy. He alleged that the lad had been kept for a time on a diet of grapes and beer.

The boy is now with his mother. She has been ordered not to return him to the "temple." Judge Pinckney will hear the case on Jan. 4.

When the father of the boy died, he and his mother were made joint heirs, and the estate was left in trust, with a trust company in Philadelphia. By a provision of the will, it is understood, the entire fortune of the former contractor was to have reverted to the mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsay, in the event of the boy's death.

According to operatives of the W. J. Burns Detective agency, the mother and the boy disappeared from New York about six months ago.

Chosen Instrument.

Closely associated with her was "Rev." D. Ottoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, the high priest, and it is said that he prevailed upon the mother to use her son as a chosen instrument in the cause of the religion.

He was to have been a subject of special revelations, and it was during his course of preparation for this notable purpose that he was put on the grape and beer diet.

Charles Lindsay, the uncle, had heard of his sister-in-law's interest in the strange cult, and after her disappearance he began an investigation.

To aid in his search, he engaged the interest of several children's protective societies in different parts of the country.

It was learned that Hanish had left the headquarters of the "Sun Worshipers" in New York. Detectives who went there found that Mrs. Lindsay and her son had been there, but that they had gone.

Several days later it was found that the boy had been tagged and sent by express to Los Angeles. When the detectives reached the California city, they found that the child again had been spirited away.

It is the belief of Lindsay, the uncle, that the leaders in the strange cult had prevailed upon Mrs. Lindsay to let them have charge of the boy, and that they hoped ultimately to obtain possession of the Lindsay fortune, through her.

Chase Across Country.

From Los Angeles, the chase led to Chicago, the central headquarters of the sect in this country. Here the detectives were placed about the "temple," and a close watch was kept to discover whether the child was inside.

The rescue was effected after a wild chase in taxicabs that occupied the greater part of a night. So closely had the "temple" been watched that it is believed the priests of the Mazdaznan cult became suspicious. They decided to remove the boy from the place of worship, and sent him out in a taxicab.

Detectives, obtaining another taxicab, followed, and there was a wild ride for several hours through the downtown streets of the city. Finally persons who had charge of the boy returned to the "temple" and took the boy back with them.

A demand was made that the door of the office be opened, and that the boy be handed over to the police, but Hanish, according to the detectives, refused to permit any one to enter the place. An ax was obtained and the door was smashed in. Hanish and other men resisted their entrance, the detectives say, but they were overcome.

Operated on at Eighty-Seven.

Baltimore, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Martha Baldwin Morgan, eighty-seven years old, a sister of Summerfield Baldwin, a leading financier of this city, was operated on by Dr. St. Clair Sprull in Johns Hopkins hospital. It is said she probably will be able to leave the hospital early next week.

To Raise Postal Bank Limit.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The five hundred dollars limit on postal savings bank deposits will be removed in the near future, according to statements made at the postoffice department.

Ex-Senator Jonas Dead.

New Orleans, Dec. 22.—Benjamin F. Jonas, former United States senator from Louisiana, died at his home in his seventy-seventh year.

PRESIDENT GOES SHOPPING

Joins Christmas Throngs Afoot to Purchase Presents.

Washington, Dec. 22.—President Taft joined the Christmas throng last evening, and started to do his own shopping.

Accompanied by Major A. W. Butt, his military aide, and two secret service men he walked through F street, the main shopping street of the city. Although it was nearly dark he was recognized, and many persons raised their hats as he passed.

The president visited a jewelry store, where he made several purchases. The store was crowded when the president entered, and most of the other shoppers temporarily laid aside their gift buying and started at the president. He remained there about half an hour, and then walked through the crowded streets to a book store, where he bought several volumes.

The White House automobile, which had been sent down to meet the president, was waiting outside the book store. When the president completed his shopping expedition, he entered the car and returned to the White House.

FIND FORTUNE ON WOMAN

Pickpocket's Skirt Hid $1481 in Money, Gold Watches and Diamond Rings.

New York, Dec. 22.—In the skirt of a woman arrested on the charge of pocket picking was found concealed $1481 in bills of small denomination, three gold watches, a bracelet, four wedding rings and six diamond rings.

She was Mrs. Lena Stamon, and the magistrate held her in $2000 bail on a charge of larceny.

She was arrested after a struggle with a woman who accused her of robbery, and when searched her small fortune was found.

SOUTH POLE POSSIBLY REACHED, SHACKLETON

With Favorable Weather Believes Explorers There.

London, Dec. 22.—"It is quite possible that Captain Scott may be at the South Pole today, if the weather has been favorable," said Sir Ernest Shackleton, Antarctic explorer.

"To my mind, the British or Norwegian party that arrived at the foot of Beardmore glacier with the largest amount of stores is the party that will reach the pole. Captain Scott had the advantage in number of men and greater experience in Antarctic exploration.

"The expedition should be back to Stewart's Island, on South New Zealand, about the beginning of March."

BOY FINDS $10,000 NECKLACE

Lad Returns It and Receives $100 for His Honesty.

New York, Dec. 22.—James Scully, an errand boy in Casola Brothers' tailor shop, found a $10,000 diamond and ruby necklace on the streets on Tuesday afternoon.

He took it back to the shop, where its value was quickly discovered by an expert.

The lost and found columns were searched the next day, and Mrs. Mary Steinman, of the Hotel Belmont, had placed an "ad" offering a reward. Jimmy received a crisp $100 bill for his honesty.

New Find Starts Alaska Gold Rush.

Ruby, Alaska, Dec. 22.—News of a rich gold strike on Hammond river has been brought here by Deputy Marshal Howell. The gold was found in a deep channel and runs $6000 at the bottom of the shaft. Pay dirt has been found in this neighborhood before, but this is the first time a channel has been discovered. A rush to the new diggings is in progress.

Wiley Under the Mistletoe.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Regardless of germs which, according to some inhuman scientists, are transferred by the gentle art of kissing, there is hanging in a most dangerous position in the bureau of chemistry here, Dr. Wiley's headquarers, a piece of Christmas mistletoe. Dr. Wiley has not objected.

Congress Quits for Holidays.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Both houses of congress adjourned for the holiday recess. They will reassemble at noon Jan. 3.

MAY PUT STOP TO SEALS

The American National Red Cross has had some correspondence with the Just Government League of Maryland in regard to the latter's intention of issuing a Christmas suffrage stamp, and has just made public the correspondence. The American National Red Cross feels that the permanency of the Christmas seal is threatened by the appearance of many other seals just at this time, and the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis is also apprehensive lest any action should result in the crippling of the anti-tuberculosis work carried on all over the country, and supported very largely, and in some states, entirely, from the money raised by the sale of the Christmas stamp.

We still have plenty of bargains, this is your last chance to buy before Christmas. Lewis E. Kirssin.

Just Like the Navy.

At Fort Monroe some time ago, where one of the vessels of the navy was temporarily awaiting orders, a delegation of army officers stationed at the fort came aboard. There is a set naval board that nothing can be so on board ship until the commanding officer orders it. While the army party were looking over the ship 12 o'clock arrived. A junior officer approached the captain and said, with a salute, "It is 12 o'clock, sir." "Make it so," responded the captain, and eight bells were struck. The army officers suspected that the navy men wanted them to ask some questions and get sold or that this was a bit of foolery got up to joke the land warriors. Some time after a party of the army officers invited the officers of the warship to dine with them. The dinner was progressing when a lieutenant entered and, saluting the senior officer present, said gravely, "Colonel, the major's blind horse is dead." "Make it so," responded the colonel, with the greatest gravity, and the dinner proceeded. Nothing was said at the time, but the navy officers tell the story.

The Scrap Book

Won by More Than a Hair.

Curtis Guild, former governor of Massachusetts, was once asked for the funniest story he ever heard. This is the story he told: "An Irishman and a Jew were discussing the great men who had belonged to each race and, as may be expected, got into a heated argument. Finally the Irishman said: 'Ikey, listen. For every great Jew ye can name ye may pull out one of me whiskers, an' for every great Irishman I can name I'll pull one of yours. Is it a go?' Ikey consented, and Pat reached over, got hold of a whisker, said 'Robert Emmet' and pulled. 'Moses,' said Ikey and pulled one of Pat's tenderest. 'Dan O'Connell,' said Pat and took another. 'Abraham,' said Ikey, helping himself again. 'Patrick Henry,' returned Pat with a vicious yank. 'The twelve apostles,' said Ikey, taking a handful of whiskers. Pat emitted a roar of pain, grasped Ikey's beard with both hands and yelled, 'The Ancient Order of Hibernians!'"

Two Ways.

Wouldst thou be wretched? 'Tis an easy way. Think but of self, and self alone, all day—Think of thy pain, thy grief, thy loss, thy care. All thou hast to do or feel or bear. Think of thy good, thy pleasure or thy gain. Think only of thyself. 'Twill not be vain. Wouldst thou be happy? Take an easy way. Think of those round thee—live for them all day. Think of their pain, their loss, their grief, their care. All that they have to do or feel or bear. Think of their pleasure, of their good, their gain. Think of those round thee. It will not be vain.

Can't Beat the Lawyers.

On the occasion of a football match in England between a number of military officers and a team of lawyers the former had prepared a splendid lunch for the visitors before the game. Both teams did thorough justice to the lunch, and the legal gentlemen going in strong for champagne and cigars, the officers anticipated an easy victory. On looking toward the football ground, however, after lunch the officers espied a remarkably fresh looking lot of giants kicking the ball about and in amazement asked the guests who the strangers were. "Oh," replied one of them, finishing his last glass of champagne, "those are our playing team. We are only the lunching team, you know."

Wanted a Consultation.

So supreme was the leadership of Senator Aldrich over a host of political followers and personal friends that many a vote was cast this way or that or the other for the sole reason that "Nels says so." Some one was recalling this fact in the senate lobby when another of the little group remarked:

"That's the exact truth. I speak from personal feeling. I trusted Aldrich's judgment implicitly, and I don't know that it ever led me wrong." Then, as he contemptively flicked the ashes off his cigar, he went on: "Did I ever tell you about a funny dream I had? I thought I was dead, and St. Peter was putting the usual questions at me before adding my name to his heavenly census. At last he figured out I was O. K. and told me to go ahead in, but I hesitated. 'Why, what's wrong?' says he. 'Most folks are in a hurry when I give 'em the word.' 'Well,' says I, 'I dare say it's all right, but I do wish I could have a couple of words with Aldrich before taking so important a step.'" — Los Angeles Times

Don't Neglect a Cold, Stop it in the Sneezing Stage. Use Ely's Cream Balm.

A cold generally attacks the weakest spot, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running of the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this pure antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hacking, spitting, and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the rottenness, but heals and strengthens the weakened and diseased membranes, thus ending catarrh for all time.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist to-day. People's Drug Store special agent for Gettysburg, Pa.

TAFT INDORSES ALDRICH PLAN

Approves Currency Reform in Message to Congress.

WOULD BUILD UP NAVY

Urges Two Battleship Program Until
We Have Forty Big Fighters—Favors
Free Canal for American Shippers, Tolls for Foreign.

Washington, Dec. 22.—President Taft sent to congress a message on the financial condition of the treasury, banking and currency reform, and certain departmental questions. This is really another section of his serial annual message.

On the subject of currency reform and in connection with the forthcoming report to congress of the monetary commission, President Taft said it was exceedingly fortunate that "the wise and undisputed policy of maintaining unchanged the main features of our banking system rendered it at once impossible to introduce a central bank."

He gave his approval to the proposed national reserve association, as contemplated in the Aldrich commission report. As to the management of this association, the president said this was mainly bankers' work, and the banks could be trusted better than anybody else to conduct it. However, he urged that some of government supervision and ultimate control should prevail, and that the currency reform should not be made a political issue.

"And I trust also that the new legislation will carefully and completely protect and assure the individuality and the independence of each bank, to the end that any tendency there may ever be toward a consolidation of the money or banking power of the nation shall be defeated," said the president.

For Rural Parcels Post.

The immediate establishment of a rural parcels post was urged. The president took the position that the post would not destroy the business of the country storekeeper.

"Instead of doing this," he said, "I think the change will greatly increase business for the benefit of all. The reduction in the cost of living it will bring about ought to make its coming certain."

On the subject of the Panama canal the president dealt at length with the question of whether American shipping should pay tolls. "I am very confident that the United States has the power to relieve from the payment of tolls any part of our shipping that congress deems wise," said the president. "We own the canal. It was our money that built it. We have the right to charge tolls for its use. Those tolls must be the same to every one, but when we are dealing with our own ships the practice of many governments of subsidizing their own merchant vessels is to well established in general that a subsidy equal to the tolls, an equivalent remission of tolls cannot be held to be a discrimination in the use of the canal."

The president wants a more powerful navy. He urges forcibly that the two battleship building program be continued until this nation has forty available vessels "of proper armament and size" in the first and reserve lines of defense and until the Panama canal is completed.

The president also declares the navy is deficient in torpedo destroyers, colliers and cruisers as well as battleship cruisers, but wants the energies of the government devoted to the building of battleships, as the smaller vessels can be built much more rapidly "in case of emergency."

He also urges a council of national defense, the creation of two or three flag officers of higher rank than rear admiral, and the immediate increase of 2000 in the enlisted strength of the navy, declaring that 4000 men actually are needed now.

Economy, with increased instead of decreased efficiency in the treasury and other departments effected by the elimination of many hundreds of positions, is pointed out.

The president plunges into the controversy over the army reorganization plans, favoring a three-year enlistment, with three years in reserve, instead of a five-year enlistment. He also wants an increase in the number of officers.

Other Recommendations.

Among the president's other recommendations were the following:

Abolition of the smaller navy yards. Contributory pension system for government employees.

The elimination of all local offices from politics. Increased appropriation for the completion of river and harbor improvements along the Mississippi, the Ohio and the Missouri rivers.

Employers' liability and workmen's compensation legislation called to the attention of congress.

Taft Receives Turkey.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The turkey question made its appearance at the White House, and President Taft referred the matter to the White House cook. It came in the guise of an enormous bird from Rhode Island, intended to grace the president's dinner table Christmas Day. It weighed forty pounds.

POST WHEELER.

Author Appointed Secretary of Embassy at Rome.

TAFT NAME NEW MINISTERS

Post Wheeler Appointed Secretary of American Embassy at Rome.

Washington, Dec. 22.—President Taft sent nominations to the senate, including the following: Elliot Northcott, of West Virginia, minister to Venezuela; George T. Weitzell, of Missouri, minister to Nicaragua.

CHINA PREMIER BALKS PLAN FOR REPUBLIC

Refuses to Accept Free From of Government.

Peking, China, Dec. 22.—Premier Yuan Shi-Kai in an official statement said that he without any qualification refused to accept a republic.

Telegrams received by the Chinese imperial authorities state that the revolutionaries at Shanghai insist on the establishment of a republic and that these are the only terms on which peace can be concluded.

The refusal of Premier Yuan Shi-Kai to accept a republic is a categorical reply to a communication made to him from Shanghai by his representative, Tang-Shao-Yi, after the meeting of the peace conference between delegates of the imperial government and revolutionaries. A statement issued after the session of the conference said that Tang-Shao-Yi, replying to Dr. Wu Ting-Fang, the leader of the revolutionary delegates, who had presented the case in favor of a republic, "expressed his readiness to accept Dr. Wu Ting-Fang's views, but that the matter was so important that he must first communicate with Peking." The armistice between the opposing forces was extended to Dec. 30, in order to give time for a reply from Peking.

MORGAN BUYS CRUCIFIXION

Nearly Life Size in Ivory and Work of an Early Master.

Madrid, Dec. 22.—J. Pierpont Morgan is the alleged purchaser of an exquisitely modeled figure of Christ crucified in almost natural size in ivory, long in the family of Signor Mayner, of Rous, near Barcelona.

It is pronounced by experts to be the work of either Michael Angelo or Leonardo da Vinci, having been executed with marvelous skill by a real master hand. Recently $121,000 was offered Mayner for it on behalf of an American millionaire.

El Noticias, a Barcelona paper, advocates raising a national subscription to prevent its leaving the country.

Swallows Poison for Cough Medicine.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 22.—When John Grause, of Edwardsville, was seized with a violent coughing spell he rushed to a closet and seized what he thought was a bottle of cough syrup. He placed the bottle to his lips, and took a mouthful of the contents, swallowing it immediately. He fell to the floor a second later, and it was learned that he had taken carbolic acid in mistake. He cannot recover.

Boy Killed Stealing Ride.

Rochester, Dec. 22.—Passengers on a street car saw Edmund Beers, twelve years old, stealing a ride on the car's fender. A woman warned the conductor, but before the car could be stopped Beers was thrown against a tree and killed.

ROB BANK CLERK IN PARIS STREET

Bandits Flee in Auto After Wounding Messenger.

THEY STOLE NEARLY $10,000

After Wounding Man Daring Robbers
Kept Pursuers at Bay With Running Fire.

Paris, Dec. 22.—Wild western scenes, reminiscent of Jesse James in his palmiest days, were enacted in the centre of Paris, when bandits attacked and shot a bank messenger and afterward kept up a running fire on the pursuing crowd as they fled in a large private automobile.

Rarely has the French capital known a more daring robbery than the four bandits planned. They stationed themselves in an automobile along the regular route of the messenger, who started on his rounds with several hundred thousand dollars worth of securities and about $10,000 in cash. For safety he was accompanied by another messenger, but they were only a few steps from the bank when a small man opened fire upon them.

The messenger fell with three wounds. The robber then took his satchel containing securities, but dying, the man made such a powerful fight, the robber was forced to flee before getting all of the cash. The other messenger fled, shouting for help.

It was the busiest hour of the morning, when the streets were filled with people. Several attempts were made to rescue the wounded man, but another bandit leaped from the automobile and began firing on the crowd, covering the retreat of his accomplice. Two other men were on the seat of the automobile, which was a limousine.

The two men holding the crowd at bay entered the car, which went away at top speed, pursued by a mob, but the robbers opened fire on the nearest pursuers and succeeded in escaping.

The only person seriously injured is the messenger, who probably will die. No trace has yet been found of the robbers. The number of the car is known, but it is believed the number was falsified. The business, district, where the shooting occurred, was terrorized.

"ADULTERATED" PAPER NOW

Washington, Dec. 22.—Discovery by the congressional joint committee on printing that "adulterated" paper had been used for years in the government printing office led to the announcement of a complete new set of government paper standards.

The paper adulteration was accomplished by the substitution of clay for the more substantial or rag fibres, leading to the fear that many records will become unreadable in less than a century.

The joint committee has been at work for more than a year to reform and standardize paper purchased, amounting to more than $1,000,000 yearly. The public printer was authorized to advertise for bids on 25,600,000 pounds of paper.

The committee was told that use of clay in excess of printing requirements was held by paper experts to be a deliberate adulteration. It was discovered that much of the papers used for many years past had been of this character.

SHERMAN MAY QUIT POLITICS

May Retire From Official Life Unless Renamed for Vice Presidency.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Subsequent to a call to the White House by Vice President Sherman, wide credence was given to a report that Mr. Sherman does not desire to be the Republican candidate for governor of New York.

It further was reported, apparently on the highest authority, that unless his party desired him to run again for the vice presidency, he would retire from politics March 4, 1913.

Mr. Sherman's call at the White House, coming immediately after President Taft's return from New York, attracted unusual interest. The vice president declined, however, to discuss his visit.

$25,000 in Diamonds Stolen.

Chicago, Dec. 22.—Report of a theft of $25,000 worth of unset diamonds from the wallet of a diamond broker was made to the police. Samuel Scott, the broker, told the police he lost the jewels Tuesday, and believed they were taken from his pocket while he was playing pool.

Scratch Causes Man's Death.

Allentown, Pa., Dec. 22.—Accidentally inflicting a slight scratch on his foot several weeks ago, William P. Davis, a slate operator of Danielsville, was stricken with blood poisoning and died. He was a member of the local school board.

King George a Mighty Hunter.

Allahabad, Dec. 22.—King George V, who has had good practice shooting pheasants in England, has made a record in the big game hunt in Nepal. At the first shoot he bagged three tigers and three rhinoceroses.

— The — Scrap Book

A Great Relief to Her.

From a story found in "The Land of Romance," a recent book about the ever interesting Scottish border, it may be assumed that the Covenanters believed that the rightful home of the highlanders was the nether regions. It is not so many years, says the author, Mrs. J. Lang, since an old woman up Yarrow way was listening to a lesson from the book of Revelation read to her by her grandchild.

"'And there appeared another wonder in heaven,'" read the little girl, "'and behold a great red dragon'" — "Hoots, lassie," interrupted the dame. "It's no a dragon?"

The child persisted. "Gie 's the book an' rax me by my specs. D-r-a, dra, g-o-n, goon. Ye're richt an' Ah'm wrang. Read on."

The child resumed. "'And the great dragon was cast out.'" "I kent that wad be the upshot o't!" the old dame cried triumphantly. "It's the winner tae me hoo be ever wan in!"

TWO CIDER TESTS.

The First One Was Rather More Convincing Than the Second.

In all glorious New Jersey it is generally admitted there is no cider to equal that of Farmer Marshall. But he is notable for other things besides. It is said that he would very much rather receive than give—in short, that he is a stingy old rascal.

Young Peterson had heard of this, but he was a young man who had considerable faith in his own powers of passing on the gentle hint, and to some sportive companions he had boasted that he would get a drink of cider out of the old man without actually asking for it. As such a thing had never been known to happen in living memory, there were plenty of takers, and the next day Peterson drove over.

"Morning, father," said he. "Fine orchard you have here."

"Aye," said the farmer.

"They tell me, too, that you have a very fine press."

"Aye. 'Tis the best in all Jersey."

"Pretty good cider you get, I suppose, eh? But I dare say I've tasted better."

"Not in your born days, Tom"—this to his son—"get an' draw a mug o' cider."

The luscious beverage was brought, and with a smile of triumph young Peterson held forth his hand to take it.

But the farmer's hand got there first. He drained the mug and then handed it to the visitor.

"There!" he remarked. "If you think you've ever met the like of that cider just smell the mug!"

MME. LANGEVIN WINS SUIT

Separation for Wife of French Scientist, Involved With Mme. Curie.
 Paris, Dec. 21.—The petition for a separation from her husband, presented in the divorce court here by Mme. Langevin, was granted.
 The text of the judge's decision does not mention the name of Mme. Curie but states that the separation is granted to Mme. Langevin because Professor Langevin had abandoned the conjugal domicile "under conditions injurious for his wife," and also because it appears from the documents submitted to the court that Professor Langevin had been guilty of "grave injuries" toward his wife.
 The court also decided that the interest of the four children demanded that they should be given into the custody of the mother. The father is granted the right to direct the education of the children, comprising two sons and two daughters, and Mme. Langevin did not oppose this. An order has also been made on Professor Langevin to pay $160 monthly toward the support of his wife, and he is also condemned to pay the costs of the suit.

REDUCE WOOL DUTY, SAYS TAFT

Urges That Revision be Proceeded With at Once.

PROTECTION IS EXCESSIVE

Transmits Report of Tariff Board to Congress and Declares Many Rates Are Prohibitory.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Material revision downward at once of the tariff on wool and woollens is urged by President Taft in a special message sent to both houses of congress.

The message transmits to congress the long-awaited report of the tariff board on "schedule K" of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law.

The board's report shows, and the president's message emphasizes that the existing duties on many classes of wool and wool manufactures, particularly on lower grades and the unscoured raw material, and on the higher grades of the finished product are prohibitory and greatly in excess of the difference in the cost of production here and abroad.

The duties are so arranged, the message sets forth, as to keep out of the United States entirely wools of fine qualities which, if imported, might be used to displace the cheap substitutes now employed.

President Taft points out also that the cost of wool growing, of manufacturing and of buildings plants is much higher in this country than in the chief competitor of the United States, and that this is not offset in this particular industry by any superiority or greater efficiency of the American labor. The cost of turning wool into yarn and yarn into cloth, the message sets forth, is nearly twice as great in the United States as abroad, and that, with the higher wages of labor, forms a handicap that has been overcome by the protective principle, resulting in the building up of a great industry involving the welfare of hundreds of thousands of people.

The president points out that the full duty is not added to the price in the United States, and that much of the so-called "compensatory duty" is greatly excessive, competition here keeping the prices far below those indicated in the tariff schedules.

"In recommending revision and reduction," says the president, "I therefore urge that action be taken with these facts in mind, to the end that an important and established industry may not be jeopardized."

He closes his message with this recommendation:

"The findings of fact by the board show ample reason for the revision downward of schedule K, in accord with the protective principle, and present the data as to relative costs and prices from which may be determined what rates will fairly equalize the difference in production costs. I recommend that such revision be proceeded with at once."

The report of the board, says the message, is unanimous, despite the fact that it comprises three Republicans and two Democrats. The board itself makes no recommendations and the president recommends no specific rates.

Mr. Taft characterizes the report of the tariff board as the most complete and exhaustive statement of a difficult and complicated subject ever presented to a legislative body. He declares it a monument to the thoroughness, industry, impartial and accuracy of the men engaged in its making. He asserts the belief that it will convince all of the wisdom of making the tariff board permanent.

The tariff board's report struck rough water as soon as it reached the Democratic house. At the close of the reading of the president's message, which was greeted with applause by the Democrats, an attempt was made to have the report referred to the ways and means committee without printing.

Republican leaders demanded that the whole report be printed at once. In the absence of the Democratic leader, Mr. Underwood, Representative Ransdell, of Texas, said the ways and means committee wanted first to determine what should be printed.

U. S. SUES WATCHCASE CO.

Begins Proceedings Against Philadelphia Concern.

SAID TO HAVE MONOPOLY

Petition in Equity Alleges the Keystone Watchcase Company is a Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade.

Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—The federal government filed in the circuit court for the eastern district of Pennsylvania
a petition in equity against the Keystone Watchcase company, charging
it with being a monopoly in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The suit was filed by United States
District Attorney J. Whitaker Thompson and William T. Chantland, a special assistant to the United States attorney general. It is based on the Sherman anti-trust act.

The government charges that by purchasing and absorbing its competitors, the Keystone company has obtained a practical monopoly over the watchcase business of the country.

The government petition alleges that the company sold its products only to jobbers who would conform to its wishes as to the disposition of the goods, and that it would refuse to sell to jobbers who might handle its watch-cases in a manner detrimental to the Keystone company.

The Keystone company, it is charged, fixed prices of its goods sold by jobbers to the retailers. The company,
the government adds, had been able
by its control of the business to make
"large and unreasonable profits upon its capital stock."

"Its net earnings in 1910," says the petition, "on the capital stock of $6,000,000 were about 14 per cent., although about one-half of its capital is represented by trademarks, good will, etc., estimated at an exorbitantly
exaggerated valuation."

The defendants are further alleged to have induced jobbers to cease handling any other line of goods than those manufactured by the Keystone company, and they maintained a selling price for both jobbers and retailers and kept a blacklist of all dealers who sold the goods at less than the price established by the company.

The petition asks that the court order the dissolution of the company so as to restore competition. The individual defendants are Theophilus Zurburg, of Philadelphia, until recently president of the company; Caleb F.
Fox, of Philadelphia, acting president
and director; Edward T. Stotesbury, of Philadelphia, vice president; John
J. Mueller, of Philadelphia, secretary;
Charles M. Fogg, of Philadelphia, treasurer;
F. H. Kain, of Philadelphia, assistant secretary, and Irving Smith, of New York, a director.

TO PAROLE HUSTON

Governor Signs Papers to Release
Convicted Architect.

Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—Joseph M.
Huston, architect for the state capitol,
will spend Christmas Day at home
with his family instead of in a cell in the Eastern penitentiary. Governor Tener signed the recommendation of the board of pardons for Huston's
release on parole.

The state board of pardons recommended the release of the convicted architect, in spite of a protest filed by the district attorney of Dauphin county. The governor signed all of the recommendations for parole made by the board, and among these was that of Huston. As soon as the official order is communicated to Warden Mc-
Kenty, of the Eastern penitentiary,
Huston will be informed of his good fortune and his release will probably take place.

He will be on parole for a period
of eighteen months, and will be compelled to make a report to the penitentiary authorities monthly until the time of his maximum sentence has expired.

The sentence passed upon Huston was for a maximum of two years or a minimum of six months. The minimum sentence expired a few weeks ago.

Enlisted Man Drowned.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The drowning
of Arthur W. Wilson, of Philadelphia, chief machinist's mate on board the United States torpedo boat Worden,
was reported to the navy department.
Wilson was washed overboard from the Worden when the vessel was on her way from Charleston to Norfolk.

Pre-Christmas Hanging Put Off.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 21.—Governor
Deneen granted a reprieve until Feb.
16 to the four convicted slayers of Fred W. Guelgow, Jr., a truck farmer, who was killed in the outskirts of Chicago on the night of Oct. 20 last. The four men were to have been hanged
Friday next.

Dynamite Under Cooper Shop.

Lebanon, Pa., Dec. 21.—Twelve sticks of dynamite were found under the cooper shop of the E. Strickler's Sons flouring mills, together with several pairs of stolen boots, some tobacco and other plunder.

To Give Poor 1200 Jack Rabbits.
Garden City, Kan., Dec. 21.—Twelve hundred jack rabbits were shipped from here to Topeka, where they will be distributed to the poor of the Kansas capital for Christmas.

"INCURABLE" HEART DISEASE SOON CURED

By the Great Specialist in Treating
Weak and Diseased Hearts. FRANK-LIN MILES, M. D., LL. B.

Who Will Send $2.50 Worth of Special
Treatment and New Book Free.

To prove the remarkable curative powers of his new Special Treatments for heart disease, short breath, pain in side, shoulder or arm, oppression, irregular pulse, palpitation, smothering, puffing of ankles, or dropsy, Dr. Miles will send,
free, to every afflicted person a $2.50
treatment. The worst cases usually soon relieved.

These treatments are the result of 25 years' extensive research and remarkable success in treating various ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, which often complicate each case. So astonishing are the results of his treatment that he offers all sick persons a two-pound
Trial Treatment free. Do not fail to try it.

Certainly nothing could be more generous. Few physicians have such confidence in their treatments. All afflicted persons should avail themselves of this liberal offer, as they may never have such an opportunity again. Delays are dangerous. No death comes more suddenly than that from heart disease. Many cured after 5 to 15 physicians had pronounced them "incurable."

Mr. Gilbert Ward, Crown City, Ohio, cured
after 8 prominent physicians failed. Mrs. W.
J. Crites, Ludington, Mich., cured after 4 failed.
Mr. P. W. Runyan, Spencer, Iowa, after 3 failed.
Mr. H. L. Davenport, Conneautville, Pa., after 4 failed. Mrs. Mary Dehart, Greenville, Pa.,
after 11 failed. Mr. C. E. Smith, Wayne, Mich.,
after 3 failed. Mrs. Lizzie Ewing, South Charleston, O., after 2 failed. Cures from your state sent on request.

Send to Dr. Franklin Miles, Dept. H, 565 to 575 Main St., Elkhart, Ind., at once, for Free Heart Book, Examination
Chart, Opinion, Advice and Free Treatment. Describe your disease.

Stomach Distress

GAS and SOURNESS VANISH

What's the use of always feeling miserable just because your stomach
isn't behaving itself?

Don't you know that scores of thousands of people have changed bad stomachs into perfect working ones by the simple method of swallowing one or two little MI-O-NA stomach tablets
after each meal?

MI-O-NA is compounded from the formula of what is probably the best prescription for indigestion and upset stomach ever written. People's Drug Store guarantees it.

It relieves distress in five minutes, but better still, it removes the cause of misery in a few days.

MME. LANGEVIN WINS SU.

Separation for Wife of French Scientist, Involved With Mme. Curie.

Paris, Dec. 21.—The petition for a separation from her husband, presented in the divorce court here by Mme. Langevin, was granted.

The text to the judge's decision does not mention the name of Mme. Curie but states that the separation is granted to Mme. Langevin because Professor Langevin had abandoned the conjugal domicile "under conditions injurious for his wife," and also because it appears from the documents submitted to the court that Professor Langevin had been guilty of "grave injuries" toward his wife.

The court also decided that the interest of the four children demanded that they should be given into the custody of the mother. The father is granted the right to direct the education of the children, comprising two sons and two daughters, and Mme. Langevin did not oppose this. An order has also been made on Professor Langevin to pay $160 monthly toward the support of his wife, and he is also condemned to pay the costs of the suit.

REDUCE WOOL DUTY.SAYS TAFT

Urges That Revision be Proceeded With at Once.

PROTECTION IS EXCESSIVE

Transmits Report of Tariff Board to Congress and Declares Many Rates Are Prohibitory.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Material revision downward at once of the tariff on wool and woolens is urged by President Taft in a special message sent to both houses of congress.

The message transmits to congress the long-awaited report of the tariff board on "schedule K" of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law.

The board's report shows, and the president's message emphasizes that the existing duties on many classes of wool and wool manufactures, particularly on lower grades and the unscoured raw material, and on the higher grades of the finished product are prohibitory and greatly in excess of the difference in the cost of production here and abroad.

The duties are so arranged, the message sets forth, as to keep out of the United States entirely wools of fine qualities which, if imported, might be used to displace the cheap substitutes now employed.

President Taft points out also that the cost of wool growing, of manufacturing and of buildings plants is much higher in this country than in the chief competitor of the United States, and that this is not offset in this particular industry by any superiority or greater efficiency of the American labor. The cost of turning wool into yarn and yarn into cloth, the message sets forth, is nearly twice as great in the United States as abroad, and that, with the higher wages of labor, forms a handicap that has been overcome by the protective principle, resulting in the building up of a great industry involving the welfare of hundreds of thousands of people.

The president points out that the full duty is not added to the price in the United States, and that much of the so-called "compensatory duty" is greatly excessive, competition here keeping the prices far below those indicated in the tariff schedules.

"In recommending revision and reduction," says the president, "I therefore urge that action be taken with these facts in mind, to the end that an important and established industry may not be jeopardized."

He closes his message with this recommendation:

"The findings of fact by the board show ample reason for the revision downward of schedule K, in accord with the protective principle, and present the data as to relative costs and prices from which may be determined what rates will fairly equalize the difference in production costs. I recommend that such revision be proceeded with at once."

The report of the board, says the message, is unanimous, despite the fact that it comprises three Republicans and two Democrats. The board itself makes no recommendations and the president recommends no specific rates.

Mr. Taft characterizes the report of the tariff board as the most complete and exhaustive statement of a difficult and complicated subject ever presented to a legislative body. He declares it a monument to the thoroughness, industry, impartial and accuracy of the men engaged in its making. He asserts the belief that it will convince all of the wisdom of making the tariff board permanent.

The tariff board's report struck rough water as soon as it reached the Democratic house. At the close of the reading of the president's message, which was greeted with applause by the Democrats, an attempt was made to have the report referred to the ways and means committee without printing.

Republican leaders demanded that the whole report be printed at once. In the absence of the Democratic leader, Mr. Underwood, Representative Ransdell, of Texas, said the ways and means committee wanted first to determine what should be printed.

Moros Are Rising in Philippines.

Manila, Dec. 21.—A battle is imminent in the island of Jolo between six hundred Moros and a force of American troops. The Moros, who are defying the ultimatum issued by Brigadier General John J. Pershing, ordering the disarmament of the natives of the district, have retired to the top of the peak of Bud Dajo, which they have fortified. They are surrounded by infantry and artillery and a fight is likely to begin at any moment.

More Money for Garfield Monument.

U. S. SUES WATCHCASE CO.

Bagins Proceedings Against Philadelphia Concern.

SAID TO HAVE MONOPOLY

Petition in Equity Alleges the Keystone Watchcase Company is a Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade.

Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—The federal government filed in the circuit court
for the eastern district of Pennsylvania
a petition in equity against the Keystone Watchcase company, charging
it with being a monopoly in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The suit was filed by United States
District Attorney J. Whitaker Thompson and William T. Chantland, a special assistant to the United States attorney general. It is based on the Sherman anti-trust act.

The government charges that by purchasing and absorbing its competitors, the Keystone company has obtained a practical monopoly over the watchcase business of the country.

The government petition alleges
that the company sold its products
only to jobbers who would conform to its wishes as to the disposition of the goods, and that it would refuse to sell
to jobbers who might handle its watch-cases in a manner detrimental to the Keystone company.

The Keystone company, it is charged, fixed prices of its goods sold by jobbers to the retailers. The company,
the government adds, had been able
by its control of the business to make
"large and unreasonable profits upon its capital earnings."

"Its net earnings in 1910," says the petition, "on the capital stock of $6,000,000 were about 14 per cent., although about one-half of its capital
is represented by trademarks, good
will, etc., estimated at an exorbitantly
exaggerated valuation."

The defendants are further alleged
to have induced jobbers to cease handling any other line of goods than those manufactured by the Keystone
company, and they maintained a selling price for both jobbers and retailers and kept a blacklist of all dealers
who sold the goods at less than the price established by the company.

The petition asks that the court order the dissolution of the company so as to restore competition. The individual defendants are Theophilus Zurburg, of Philadelphia, until recently president of the company; Caleb F.
Fox, of Philadelphia, acting president
and director; Edward T. Stotesbury,
of Philadelphia, vice president; John
J. Mueller, of Philadelphia, secretary;
Charles M. Fogg, of Philadelphia, treasurer; F. H. Kahn, of Philadelphia, assistant secretary, and Irving Smith,
of New York, a director.

TO PAROLE HUSTON

Governor Signs Papers to Release
Convicted Architect.

Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—Joseph M.
Huston, architect for the state capitol,
will spend Christmas Day at home
with his family instead of in a cell in the Eastern penitentiary. Governor Tener signed the recommendation of the board of pardons for Huston's
release on parole.

The state board of pardons recommended the release of the convicted architect, in spite of a protest filed by the district attorney of Dauphin county. The governor signed all of the recommendations for parole made by the board, and among these was that of Huston. As soon as the official order is communicated to Warden Mc-
Kenty, of the Eastern penitentiary,
Huston will be informed of his good fortune and his release will probably take place.

He will be on parole for a period
of eighteen months, and will be compelled to make a report to the penitentiary authorities monthly until the time of his maximum sentence has expired.

The sentence passed upon Huston
was for a maximum of two years or
a minimum of six months. The minimum sentence expired a few weeks
ago.

Enlisted Man Drowned.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The drowning
of Arthur W. Wilson, of Philadelphia,
chief machinist's mate on board the United States torpedo boat Worden,
was reported to the navy department.
Wilson was washed overboard from
the Worden when the vessel was on her way from Charleston to Norfolk.

Pre-Christmas Hanging Put Off.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 21.—Governor
Deneen granted a reprieve until Feb.
16 to the four convicted slayers of Fred W. Guelow, Jr., a truck farmer, who was killed in the outskirts of Chicago on the night of Oct. 20 last. The four men were to have been hanged
Friday next.

Dynamite Under Cooper Shop.

Lebanon, Pa., Dec. 21.—Twelve
sticks of dynamite were found under
the cooper shop of the E. Strickler's Sons flouring mills, together with several pairs of stolen boots, some tobacco and other plunder.

To Give Poor 1200 Jack Rabbits.

Garden City, Kan., Dec. 21.—Twelve
hundred jack rabbits were shipped from here to Topeka, where they will be distributed to the poor of the Kansas capital for Christmas.

"INCURABLE" HEART DISEASE SOON CURED

By the Great Specialist in Treating
Weak and Diseased Hearts. FRANK
LIN MILES, M. D., LL. B.

Who Will Send $2.50 Worth of Special
Treatment and New Book Free.

To prove the remarkable curative powers of his new Special Treatments for
heart disease, short breath, pain in side,
shoulder or arm, oppression, irregular
pulse, palpitation, smothering, puffing
of ankles, or dropsy, Dr. Miles will send,
free, to every afflicted person a $2.50
treatment. The worst cases usually soon
relieved.

These treatments are the result of 25 years' extensive research and remarkable success in treating various ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, which often complicate each case. So astonishing are the results of his treatment that
he offers all sick persons a two-pound
Trial Treatment free. Do not fail to try it.

Certainly nothing could be more generous. Few physicians have such confidence in their treatments. All afflicted
persons should avail themselves of this liberal offer, as they may never have such an opportunity again. Delays are dangerous. No death comes more suddenly than that from heart disease. Many cured
after 5 to 15 physicians had pronounced
them "incurable."

Mr. Gilbert Ward, Crown City, Ohio, cured
after 8 prominent physicians failed. Mrs. W.
J. Crites, Ludington, Mich., cured after 4 failed.
Mr. P. W. Runyan, Spencer, Iowa, after 3 failed.
Mr. H. L. Davenport, Conneautville, Pa., after 4 failed. Mrs. Mary Dettart, Greenville, Pa.,
after 11 failed. Mr. C. E. Smith, Wayne, Mich.,
after 3 failed. Mrs. Lizzie Ewing, South Charleston, O., after 2 failed. Cures from your state
sent on request.

Send to Dr. Franklin Miles, Dept. H, 565 to 575 Main St., Elkhart, Ind., at
once, for Free Heart Book, Examination
Chart, Opinion, Advice and Free Treatment. Describe your disease.

Stomach Distress

GAS and SOURNESS VANISH

What's the use of always feeling
miserable just because your stomach
isn't behaving itself?

Don't you know that scores of thousands of people have changed bad
stomachs into perfect working ones by
the simple method of swallowing one or two little MI-O-NA stomach tablets
after each meal?

MI-O-NA is compounded from the formula of what is probably the best prescription for indigestion and upset
stomach ever written. People's Drug Store guarantees it.

It relieves distress in five minutes, but better still, it removes the cause of misery in a few days.

Large box 50 cents at People's Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

PUPILS PREPARED FOR HIM

Member of School Board Finds They Need No Lesson in Pronunciation From Him.

The member of the board of public education who was visiting one of the schools in the primary department had made a little speech to the children on the importance of correct pronunciation. Picking up a chalk crayon, he wrote the word "helious" on the blackboard.

"To give you an example, boys and girls," he said, "I wonder how many of you know how to pronounce that word."

"Haynus!" shouted the children in concert.

"Miss Guernsey," said the visitor, turning suspiciously to the teacher, "how did you know I was going to try them on that?"

"I didn't know it, Mr. Judson," she answered, "but I am something of a crank on pronunciation myself, and we have frequent drills on words. You will find that these children know how to pronounce exquisite, despicable, demoniacal, misanthropic, coadjutor, naïveté, sacrifice, genealogy, program, gerrymander, discipline, parcels, esotichow, exemplary and hilarious, together with many others that do not occur to me just now."

"I see," said the official visitor, uncertain whether to be crestfallen or elated, "that these youngsters don't need any lesson on pronunciation from me, anyhow," and he took his hat and and departed.—Youth's Companion.

No Cash.

"Did you get that old miser to spend much at your charity bazaar?"

"Oh, yes; he spent our time."

Chinese Tailorland.

Every Chinese is an enigma to the western mind, but the greatest enigma of them all is the man who has been called to the helm of state in this storm, the only man, if there be any, who can save the empire from shipwreck, Yuan Shi-Kai. He has been suspected and trusted alternately by Manchu and Chinese, reformer and conservative, foreign and native. The late emperor, who had made him his chief adviser, cursed him with his last breath as a traitor and cause of all his misfortunes. The late empress dowager, who had favored him above all others, denounced him at her last council. The present regent, his bitter enemy, has now made him virtually dictator of the empire. He is a possible intermediary between Manchus and rebels, because each party believes he is on their side; the Manchus trust him to support the dynasty, the rebels trust him to promote reform. Trained in the school of devious diplomacy under that consummate master of the craft, Li Hung-Chang, he has pursued a tortuous course through the troubled waters of Chinese politics ever since. His career would make the plot for a melodrama were it not too sensational and improbable for the stage.—New York Independent.

What He Was.

"You wouldn't think," he said, indicating a gentleman across the street, "that that ordinary, commonplace-looking person has many times stared death unflinchingly in the face?"

"Why, no. Is he a desperate character?"

"Not very. He is an undertaker."

"Made It So."

At Fort Monroe some time ago (this is an old story), where one of the vessels of the navy was temporarily awaiting orders, a delegation of army officers stationed at the fort came aboard. There is a set naval regulation that nothing can be so on board ship until the commanding officer orders it. While the army party were looking over the ship, twelve o'clock arrived. A junior officer approached the captain and said, with a salute: "It is twelve o'clock, sir." "Make it so," responded the captain, and eight bells were struck. The army officers suspected that the navy men wanted them to ask some questions and get sold, or that this was a bit of foolery got up to joke the land warriors. Some time after, a party of the army officers invited the officers of the warship to dine with them. The dinner was progressing when a lieutenant entered and, saluting the senior officer present, said, gravely: "Colonel, the major's blind horse is dead." "Make it so," responded the colonel, with the greatest gravity, and the dinner proceeded. Nothing was said at the time, but the navy officers tell the story.

More Pay, More Love.

"New York city school ma'ams are going to be an attractive target for Cupid's shafts in the near future," said a principal the other day. "With salaries ranging from $1,850 to $2,400 yearly, even an extravagant spinster will be able to boost the credit side of a savings account. Some of my women teachers already report an increase in the number of suitors, and they say there is an appreciable increase in the fervor of their 'banes' protestations of affection."

An Endless Chain.

"We're kind of irritated in our flat," said the worried-looking man. "What's the trouble?" "Our children keep the next-door neighbors awake, so they pass the time by playing the piano; that makes the pet dog next door to them bark, and that keeps the children next door awake, and there's so much noise through the building that there's no chance whatever of our children going to sleep."

True.

"A hundred years ago it was sometimes a hard job to spend a large sum of money."

"There were no automobile repair shops then."

Finical.

"I am told that your new play is drawing crowded houses and that you turn hundreds of people away every night."

"That is merely newspaper misrepresentation, sir. We don't turn anybody away. We tell them in the kindest possible manner that every seat in the house is sold, and they turn away themselves. These lying journalists make me tired!"

NOTICE just received a lot of knickerbocker suits for boys. In large sizes up to 18. Colors blue, gray brown; all worsted. Lewis E. Kirsan.
